

lucky bamboo

Lucky you, you got a lucky bamboo! But did you know... it's not a bamboo at all?! It's a dracaena!

Place in bright, indirect light. Can tolerate low light conditions such as and office or interior room.

Fertilizer not needed.

Plant in an all-purpose potting soil or grow in distilled water.

Leaf burn from too much sun or high salt content in fertilizer or the growing media can cause issues.

Keep soil evenly moist, or grow directly in distilled water. Change water every two weeks.
